

Wayforward Privacy Notice

Wayforward keeps private information about the people we support

We need to keep this information so we know how to support you

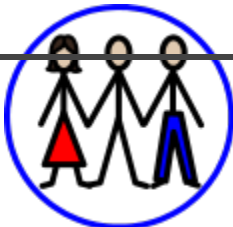

The law also says we need to keep information about the support we provide

We have a responsibility to keep your information safe

Only people who provide you support will see your information usually

We may share this information with your family if you agree or if this is decided to be best for you

People who pay for your support may request to see your information

Wayforward Privacy notice

People who monitor Wayforward, like CQC, may request to see your information.

We may need to share your information with others if we need to in order to keep you safe. This may be the police or safeguarding

You should be involved in developing the information we hold about you

You can ask to see the information we hold about you at any time

You can ask the manager to see this information

Or you can email admin@wayforwardsss.co.uk

We will acknowledge receipt within 3 working days, and reply within 28 days.